Polish house - working bee

Dziękuję

A big massive thank you to all our working bee helpers who gave up their time to come to Polish house on a Saturday and give it a very good extra scrub and tidy up.

The kitchen is now looking very sparkling with all areas sorted all ready for our 50th Anniversary event.

For half a century, 1 McDonald Street in Auckland—a place of shared heritage—will welcome our members, families, and friends for a celebratory evening.

community in Auckland. We invite our members to join the celebration.

Interested in learning more about Polish people in New Zealand?

The first “brilliant but cranky” Pole arrived in Dusky Sound with his son in March 1773 with Captain Cook’s ship, Resolution.

During the next 100 years, mostly single men—adventurers—followed, but it was not till 1872 that the first significant groups of Polish families arrived, and started their lives in a land that was as foreign to them as they were to it.
